Wayne State University allows the release of directory information about its students to third parties. Unless a student informs the university that s/he does not want this information released, it will be made available to third parties upon request. In addition, the student's name, WSU e-mail address, college, and major will be made available on the university's online directory, accessible at <http://wayne.edu>.

If you do not want this information released, you must formally request that Wayne State not release it. Once you instruct us to not release directory information, you need take no further action. Please note that if you request that we not release directory information, your information may also be hidden on the university's electronic directory.

There is an exception to this restriction. Federal law mandates that educational institutions receiving federal financial aid funds release student information to U.S. Department of Defense military recruiters upon request. Because of these laws, students may not opt out of this release.

Wayne State University considers the following information as directory information, subject to release. Information marked with an asterisk will be released to U.S. Department of Defense military recruiters:

1. Name, mailing address and telephone number
2. Age or date of birth
3. Level of education, majors, concentrations, and degrees received from Wayne State (including date of conferral)
4. Educational institution you were most recently enrolled
5. Current term attendance
6. Other honors and awards received (such as university scholarships and academic awards)
7. WSU e-mail address
8. Participation in athletics or other activities
9. Height and weight of members of athletic teams

By signing this form, I request that Wayne State University release no information about me to third parties, except as required by law. I understand I can revoke this restriction at any time by informing the Office of the Registrar in writing.
